

Washington International Law Journal

Volume 30
Number 2 A Global Reckoning: Answering Calls for Change

3-2021

Featured Artists

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.law.uw.edu/wilj>

Recommended Citation

Front Matter, Featured Artists, 30 Wash. L. Rev. (2021).

Available at: <https://digitalcommons.law.uw.edu/wilj/vol30/iss2/17>

This Front Matter is brought to you for free and open access by the Law Reviews and Journals at UW Law Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Washington International Law Journal by an authorized editor of UW Law Digital Commons. For more information, please contact jafrank@uw.edu.

FEATURED ARTISTS

Estefanía Ruiz Molina is 25 years old, and a Spanish Roma, designer, social integrator, psychology student, activist and businesswoman. Her company is called Mil Duquelas Puro Arte, a Romani brand, born with the idea of remembering, and proudly wearing the eternal struggle of the Roma people.

Instagram: @milduquelas

Online: milduquelas.com – Based in Madrid, Spain

Tom Block is a 25+ year exhibiting visual artist, playwright, author of five books, and Founding Producer of New York City's International Human Rights Art Festival (ihraf.org). He has exhibited his artwork in museums, galleries and universities around the United States, Canada and Europe. His art-activist work has been profiled more than 50 times in periodicals.

Online: tomblock.com – Based in New York, New York

Hala Hassan was born in Lebanon and raised with traditional art practices. She has spent the last ten years building her career as a digital strategist, graphic designer, and illustrator. Her work has been published in Autostraddle, The Seventh Wave, and the Gulf Center for Human Rights and more, and she often contributes to projects grounded in art activism. Hala continues to use her distinctive one-line drawings to visualize her experience as a queer, alien artist living in New York City while also leading digital communications at OutRight Action International. She is also a co-founder of the recently established creative hub and studio, The House of Heart.

Instagram: @online.png

Online: hellohala.com – Based in Brooklyn, NY

Jerry Bartolacci and Francesca Serri (architects and artists) are co-founders of “q04Interior Design and Beyond” art and design studio in NYC—Florence. They have ongoing projects in Cameroon, China, and the USA exploring the relationship between art and sustainability in architecture.

Instagram: @q04architecture

Online: www.q04architecture.squarespace.com